

Sources of Assistance for RRWA's Member-Customers

Difficulty paying your water bill? RRWA member-customers who are having difficulty paying their water bills should contact our office by calling 800-233-8849 to discuss your circumstances.

RRWA would also like to make sure that our member-customers are aware of assistance available from local partner agencies of the Iowa Community Action Association. These local agencies offer a wide range of services to families and individuals which may include assistance with utility bill payment. You can find contact information for the agency that serves your county on Iowa Community Action Association's website at <https://iowacommunityaction.org/>. You can also call the numbers listed below.
